

Bill Jones - Safe Soulmates (2 poems)

Left Alone
Oneself
Neglected
Exonerated
Lost
Isolated
Needless
Exiled
Sad
Stressed Out

Ignored by your peers
Sleepless
Over your head
Living alone
Alienated
Time goes by slowly
Infected with the thought of being alone
Opposite of being with people
No one around

Amelia - Safe Soulmates

Isolated
Sad
Own
Lonely
Alone
Tears
Insulated
Out of place
Neglected

Tommo - Safe Soulmates

Irritable
Sad
Out in the cold
Lost
Anxious
Terrible
In the dark
Overwhelmed
Negativity

Mark-Mason Robledo - Safe Soulmates

Life

Is

So

Occasionally

Little

And

Terrible.

It's

Only

Now

Lizzie Felton – Safe Soulmates (4 poems)

Isolated

Suffocated

Overload negative thoughts

Lonely

All at once

Terrified

Inconvenient negative monsters

Overthinking too much

Nasty

I chose to get out of the house and do something productive such as meet up with friends, go for walks, and volunteer in a charity shop.

On My Own

Over excited

New experiences

Manage extremely well

Yourself

Objective

Winning

New beginnings

I decided I wanted to push myself out of my comfort zone such as independent travel, purchasing items for the first time, etc.

Loneliness

Lost

Over

Never again

Exit of no hope

Leftover
Impossible
Nothing
Evil
Sorry for myself
Scary

I listen to my music watch movies and meet up with my friends to stop me from feeling lonely.

Belong

Belong
Equality
Love
Open arms
Nice people
Greetings from everyone